

Good Afternoon,

We would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you on your recent engagement and thank you for considering Greywalls as a possible venue for your forthcoming wedding.

This elegant house, enchanting gardens and stunning location makes Greywalls a truly beautiful location for a wedding. It offers an impressive backdrop to your celebration with versatile facilities that can make your wedding day a joy for you and each one of your guests.

Greywalls provides an intimate atmosphere which is enjoyed best as a private house with exclusive use for your wedding party. This ensures that your guests can enjoy all areas of the House without interference from others and the whole event turns into a house party filled with your own family and friends.

Greywalls is a house for all seasons, be it a winter wedding when crackling log fires and candlelight add to the romantic atmosphere, or a summer wedding when you can take full advantage of the fabulous and famous Jekyll's garden.

More than just a feast for the eyes; catering at Greywalls is a magical experience and home to the much loved Chez Roux restaurant from renowned Chef Albert Roux OBE, KFO, head of the famous cooking dynasty behind renowned London restaurant Le Gavroche, the first restaurant in the UK to be awarded three Michelin Stars.

The culinary team will work with you to craft dishes to complement your vision for the day.

Over the years we have built up contacts with local suppliers whose services we feel confident to recommend and who know Greywalls and our exquisite gardens intimately. These services include the provision of flowers, cars, wedding cakes, kilt hire and photographers. We are also happy to recommend entertainment.

Be it a small intimate occasion or the grandest of weddings, we have plenty of creative ideas and solutions to make your day perfect.

This document outlines most of our frequently asked questions, however, please let us know if you have any further queries or if you would like to arrange a visit.

Kind regards

Gavin McKinnon
Assistant General Manager

About Greywalls

Designed by the celebrated Edwardian architect Sir Edwin Lutyens as a 'dignified holiday home' Greywalls was built in 1901 and still retains the charm and character for which it is renowned. A haven of peaceful tranquility it enjoys a reputation for the excellence of its food and service. As well as the elegant drawing rooms and delightful dining areas the house has 23 en suite bedrooms.

The delightful walled gardens are attributed to Gertrude Jekyll and contain a hard and grass tennis court, croquet lawn and putting green as well as borders filled with herbaceous plants.

Weddings at Greywalls

The elegant house, enchanting gardens and stunning location make Greywalls a truly beautiful location for a wedding. The house provides an impressive backdrop to your celebration with versatile facilities that can make your wedding day a joy for you and each one of your guests.

We hold a license that means you may choose to have the wedding ceremony here as well as the reception.

For wedding celebrations, we require couples to take exclusive use of the house and gardens. This means we can ensure you and your guests have the perfect day and full use of all of our rooms and facilities.

Your marriage ceremony

A marriage ceremony at Greywalls is a very special experience. The ceremony can be held in the Sun Room which overlooks the beautiful gardens, elsewhere in the house or of course, in the garden itself. Floral displays can be arranged to complement the bridal bouquet and with music to suit your taste. Together with the historical décor, paintings and antiques the setting could not be more romantic.

The Wedding Breakfast

Guests are able to enjoy a Chez Roux dining experience where the superb cuisine is overseen by Chef Albert Roux OBE, KFO.

The perfect wedding breakfast is a careful selection of dishes that complements your vision for the day. Dining at Greywalls can be as relaxed or as formal as the party requires and we will be delighted to work with you to create just the right atmosphere for your wedding celebration.
